Anon uses Linux

>using linux in front of class mates >teacher says "Ok students, now open photoshop" >start furiously typing away at terminal to install Wine

>Errors out the ass

>Everyone else has already started their classwork

>I start to sweat

>Install GIMP

>"Umm...what is THAT anon?" a girl next to me asks

>I tell her its GIMP and can do everything that photoshop does and IT'S FREE!

>"Ok class, now draw use the shape tool to draw a circle!" the teacher says

>I fucking break down and cry and run out of the class

>I get beat up in the parking lot after school
